

EPIC Long Island To Host 28th Annual Golf Tournament

EAST MEADOW, NEW YORK, May 27, 2015 – EPIC Long Island’s 28th Annual Golf Tournament will take place at The Mill River Club in Upper Brookville, New York, on Monday, August 10, 2015.

This year’s event will feature the Inaugural Don Luneburg Golf and Tennis Classic, named in honor of EPIC Long Island Board member, Don Luneburg. Luneburg and his wife Grace have generously supported the agency for two decades while serving on numerous committees and raising awareness about EPIC Long Island’s mission and services. Many of their family members share their philanthropic efforts and can be found at nearly every agency event!

As a Board member (a position he’s held for 20 years), Luneburg participates in all aspects of governance and provides research and insight regarding relevant issues that touch the organization. Under his guidance, development efforts at EPIC Long Island have grown tremendously.

When he’s not at committee meetings or enjoying travel with Grace, Luneburg remains active as CEO of FDR Services Corp – one of the largest providers of healthcare laundry and linen services on the East Coast. The company is also a proud sponsor of EPIC Long Island’s golf tournament for the past 10 years.

“The golf tournament has always been an import part of my families life. Having friends and colleagues join me in supporting the great work of EPIC Long Island has been very gratifying and I am honored to have the outing named for me,” says Don Luneburg. “This was an opportunity suggested by my son, Keith Luneburg and son-in-law, Jesse McCormack, who wanted to recognize my support of the agency and continue FDR Services’ and our family’s involvement in an organization that offers so much to Long Island families.”

Registration for EPIC Long Island’s 2015 Golf Tournament begins at 10:00 am and includes brunch and gift bags for golf and tennis participants. Swimming and yoga will also be available. Dinner and cocktails, featuring an exciting awards ceremony, will immediately follow all the sporting action.

“Our golf and tennis tournament promises to be a great event,” says Tom Hopkins, President and CEO of EPIC Long Island. “Thanks to the wonderful contributions of our longtime supporters, including the Luneburg family, proceeds from the golf outing allow us to deliver important services to more than 11,000 people across Long Island. We can't wait to swing for a great cause, both on the green and on the courts."

Ticket prices for the event are $750 per golfer, $350 for tennis players, and $175 for the dinner. A number of sponsorship opportunities are also available. For more information and to register online, go to <http://www.epicligolf.com/>. RSVP by August 3, 2015.

ABOUT EPIC LONG ISLAND

EPIC Long Island began in 1953 with a small group of parents whose mission was to help children with epilepsy lead productive lives. Over sixty years later, the organization has fulfilled that promise with 15 residences, two clinics, a wide range of programs that serve over 10,000 individuals annually. EPIC Long Island has broadened its mission to offer more social and health services across Long Island and has grown to serve not only individuals with epilepsy, but also those with developmental disabilities and mental health challenges. While epilepsy is at its core, the organization offers a spectrum of superior services for individuals and families with different needs. EPIC Long Island's mission is to enrich the lives of those they serve through quality care, a broad range of services and an unwavering commitment to excellence.

###